

BIOGRAPHY

Mrs. Sharon Thomas-Alleyne

Mrs. Sharon Thomas-Alleyne earned Post-Graduate Certificates from the University of Melbourne and the Vocational Training Development Institute; Master's degrees from the University of Phoenix and Nova Southeastern University; and an Honours Bachelor's degree from The University of the West Indies (Mona). She has worked in the Quality Assurance and Quality Enhancement Services area at the Barbados Accreditation Council since 2006.

Over her professional life Mrs. Thomas-Alleyne has participated in various aspects of customer service, quality assurance and quality enhancement, research, education, and training to both the non-management and management personnel. She was an instructor in Organisational Behaviour and Quantitative Methods at the tertiary level and also designed, developed and presented training programmes to diverse groups at the management and non-management levels. Mrs. Thomas-Alleyne has also consulted on the design of operational systems and process/procedural upgrades for a tertiary level school registry.

Mrs. Thomas-Alleyne has served as a Board Member with CANQATE from 2013-2015 and was elected Treasurer to the Board of Management, CANQATE for the period 2015-2017.