

Sherma Joseph, CertEd (Science), BEd(Educational Administration), M.Ed.(Curriculum and Supervision) is an Accreditation Officer at The Accreditation Council of Trinidad and Tobago (ACTT). She has been involved in curriculum development as well as testing, measurement and assessment in primary schools and higher education. She has lectured in the areas of curriculum development, assessment, school development and improvement, and philosophy of education at both under and post graduate levels. Her research work is focused on stakeholder perceptions of the national assessments of educational achievement, equity and its relationship to quality education. She is currently engaged in the study of validity arguments associated with high stakes testing and assessment in higher education.

She is a member of the CANQATE Board of Directors and the Regional Co-ordinator for the Southern Caribbean.