

BIODATA

Dr. Ronald A. Brunton

Dr Ronald Brunton is a well recognised tertiary level educator, researcher and administrator based in the Caribbean region. Dr Brunton has conducted considerable research related to the evaluation of higher education policy, educational indicators, distance and alternative education delivery systems, quality assurance and the role of education in national development. His full time position is that of Director of Qualifications and Recognition at the Accreditation Council of Trinidad and Tobago (ACTT), where he advises on the recognition of local, foreign and transnational qualifications. He delivers workshops on conducting institutional research, developing and implementing quality assurance policies and practices, and preparing the self-study for institutional accreditation. Dr. Brunton is the 5th the President of the Caribbean Area Network for Quality Assurance in Tertiary Education (CANQATE) where he is committed to building the organization to serve the interests of its membership through by promoting a 'culture of quality' throughout the tertiary education sector.